Andrew and Eli Beachy were killed on the farm of Henry J. Troyer, by the explosion of a saw mill engine on Feb. 22 1882 at 2 o'clock, p. m. Andrew was thrown 366 feet and instantly killed; one arm and leg being torn from the body and thrown quite a distance. Eli was thrown 60 feet and killed.

Two other men were also killed. One by name of Lenhart Hershberger, who was thrown 350 feet and killed. George Stutzman was thrown 175 feet and killed. Michael Stutzman had one leg mashed which was amputated by Dr. Jacob A. Mast. Abraham Mast was an eye witness of the horrible scene after the explosion.

You will note that the Beachy History has the date of this accident 1885, which I have been informed is not correct.
